Monday, October 29, 2012
Sponsored by the Alameda Multicultural Community Center in recognition of National Bullying Prevention Month

6:00-8:00pm
6-7:30: Film Screening
7:30-8pm: Discussion led by Dexter Moore, Jr., Encinal High School Intervention Specialist

“Cyberbully” is a 2011 television drama that tells the story of a teenage girl who is bullied online through a popular social website. This film portrays the overwhelming challenges she faces as the bullying escalates, and the efforts of her mother to prevent other youth from going through the same trauma.
Please join us as we learn about the serious problem of cyberbullying and discuss solutions to this reality in the lives of many young people.

Location: Alameda Boys & Girls Club
1900 Third St., Rear Building, Alameda, CA 94501

National Bullying Prevention Month was founded in 2006 as an awareness week by the PACER National Bullying Prevention Center. It has since evolved into a month of events providing education to the public and support for victims of bullying.

Refreshments will be served. Location is a 3-block walk from bus line #31.
For information: <alamulticultural@gmail.com> or 510-355-6984.