Summer & STEM Basketball

BallPoppers & Alameda Recreation & Parks Dept.
I. Description

A Basketball series teaching fundamental basketball skills to boys & girls in the Alameda, Oakland, San Leandro and Berkeley’s economically challenged communities.

The objective is to teach fundamental basketball skills. The curriculum will include special emphasis on teaching the importance of STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering & Math) competence providing career and sports opportunities through speakers, role models and athletes.

II. Details

Dates: Saturdays: July 12 - August 9, 2014 (Five sessions)

Times: 9:00-4:00 pm (2 sessions: sign up for 9-12 or 1-4)

Location: Alameda Boys & Girls Club

Coaches: Experienced & Youth Assistant Coaches

Fees: $200  Full & partial scholarships available to majority of attendees.

Attendees: Anticipating 75-100 4th-7th grade Boys & Girls from local communities. Targeting primarily low income youth

III. Partners

Organizers will seek partners/alliances to participate. Partner donations could include: Speakers, promotional items and donations. Partners we are seeking include: Golden State Warriors, Univ. of California’s Athletic Department, Oakland Police Department, Alameda County Sheriffs Department, Alameda Police Department, etc. Corporate sponsors could include: Target, Perforce, Clif Bar, Sports Authority, etc.

VI. Information

For more information please contact: Mable Yee  510-918-3700

1ballpoppers@gmail.com